MANCHESTER SHIPS TO ENTER RATE WAR

Reardon-Smith Line Plans to Start Direct Service to New York June 21.

A new move in the rate war in the European trade routes being waged by the conference lines against the competing Reardon-Smith Line was seen peting Reardon-Smith agents, the United States Navigation Company, that a service between New York and Manchester would be started June 21 with the sailing of the Alness. Hitherto only Hamburg, London and Liverpool have been served, and the big cuts in rates have affected only these ports.

A sailing to Liverpool direct will be made by the King City June 30, omitmade for king City June 30, omitm a sating to Liverpoor direct will be made by the King City June 30, omit-ting the usual call at London. Both the Alness and the King City are making their first trips in the Reardon-Smith service, and are recent additions to the

SHIP BOARD'S AGENTS ASKED TO CONFERENCE

Object of June 20 Meeting Is Not Given in Notices.

Shipping Board managing agents, of which there are forty, have been called to a general meeting in Washington June 20, it was learned yesterday. A conclave of this sort is unusual, and as the purpose of the meeting was not disclosed in the letters sent out, there is considerable speculation as to what matters will be taken up.

Some time ago the agents made a plea

Twelve Days From New York to San Francisco.

What may have been a record breaking coast to coast voyage was completed Wednesday with the arrival in San Francisco of the Admiral liner H. F. Alexander. The total elapsed time on the trip was 12 days 3 hours and 53 minutes, including twenty-four hours at Balboa and twelve hours at Havana. The average speed was 20.66 knois, and the vessel, newly reconditioned, was not pressed at all, according to T. J. Kehoe, local agent of the line.

Mr. Kehoe said that in the absence of full data as to previous speed trips
